Caring for the Caregiver

Many people in our congregation have faced caregiving challenges in the past, and some will face them in the future. Some of you are facing care giving challenges right now. Whether you are taking care of a disabled child, assisting a family member with a lengthy illness, or helping an aging parent, please join us for this new class.

"OFF THE CHAIN"--RECOVERY SUPPORT

Joey Morton & Pat Thorpe
room 115

God wants you free from addictive behavior and substances so you are able to fulfill your true purposes in life. "Off-the Chain" is a spiritual support group designed for those who struggle with addictions. Biblical principles serve as the basis to challenge every person to live free and faithful. This group is for both men and women who are in recovery, as well as spouses, family members, and friends.

JESUS, THE SAVIOR

Douglas & Vanessa Ribeiro
room 102

This challenging study of the gospel story is for any person who prefers to study the scriptures in Spanish. Whether Spanish is your native language or you are improving proficiency in Spanish, you will be blessed from the study and from the fellowship.

JESUS, EL SALVADOR

Douglas & Vanessa Ribeiro
room 102

Este estudio impactante del evangelio es para cualquier persona quien prefiera estudiar las escrituras en español. Si español es su idioma natal o si desea mejora su español, sera bendecido por medio de este estudio y la communion.

POST-MODERN MARVELS

Don McLaughlin & Doug Buce
room 106

The new generation of young adults collectively says, "Truth is relative, so don't force your beliefs on me! I'll let my own experiences and thoughts guide my actions." This class will distill the abstract concepts of postmodern philosophies down to meaningful take-aways that will equip you to be effective salt and light for Jesus in this new generation.
